

YOUTH LEADERSHIP ROBERTSON COUNTY 2017 CLASS

Youth Leadership Robertson County is sponsored by The Robertson County Chamber of Commerce and The Robertson County UT Extension Office. The program provides unique opportunities for students to learn more about their community with the goal of inspiring civic engagement and participation.

Areas of focus will include:

- Agricultural
- State Government
- Health Care
- Local Government
- Education (after school event-go to school board meeting)
- Large Industry
- History of Robertson County

We select 2-3 students from each of the 5 high schools, applications are also open to home school and private school students. Participants have the unique opportunity to meet and interact with the decision makers of business, industry and government, as well as, build relationships with other students leaders around Robertson County.
